No. 28

Senate

The Senate met at 9 a.m. and was called to order by the Honorable DANIEL K. AKAKA, a Senator from the State of Hawaii.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Dr. David Russell, national chaplain of the American Legion, will lead the Senate in prayer.

PRAYER

The guest Chaplain offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Dear most gracious Heavenly Father, we humbly come to You today to request that You grant wisdom for all those who gather in this seat of Government, that they might always act in the best interest of this Nation and its people whom they represent.

Help them, Sir, to seek Your guidance and direction in all their deliberations. Reach deep into their innermost hearts and minds to bring them together in unity so that they may act as one. Enable them to set aside personal desires to seek Your divine will and way for this great Nation.

May they, and we, always be mindful that our Nation, our lives, our very being rests in Thy eternal hands.

Bring them together in a spirit of humility and love for Thee and for these United States of America. These petitions we ask in Jesus' name. Amen.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The Honorable DANIEL K. AKAKA led the Pledge of Allegiance, as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

WELCOME TO DR. DAVID RUSSELL

Mr. REID. On behalf of Senator WARNER, I welcome Dr. David Russell, who has been our guest Chaplain, for his very timely prayer and also the representation of the American Legion which has rendered such great service to our country.

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, we are grateful this morning to have a very distinguished member of the clergy of Virginia participate in the opening of today's session as the Chaplain. It is my honor and privilege to join others this morning. My colleague, Mr. ALLEN, was here, and Senator REID participated in introducing Dr. David Russell.

Dr. Russell hails from Spotsylvania, VA, and is pastor of the Cornerstone Baptist Church in Falmouth, VA, a community of just over 3,600 outside Fredericksburg. He served in the Korean war, as did I, and he served in the U.S. Air Force from 1949 until 1952. It is interesting that our periods overlapped. I served in the Marines in Korea in the fall of 1951 until the spring of 1952.

In short, Dr. Russell has served his Lord, his nation, stretching back over 50 years. He is also privileged to be the national chaplain of the American Legion, an organization of which I am privileged to be a member, as was my father. My father served in World War I as a young doctor in the trenches in France and proudly joined the Legion. I still possess the American Legion pin that my father carried in that period of time.

Dr. Russell's distinguished background, however, includes another profound and noteworthy matter. It has to do with his service as a long-time member of the Chapel of Four Chaplains. In fact, he now serves as the Virginia State Chaplain of the Chapel of Four Chaplains. There may be some who are not familiar with the Chapel of Four Chaplains. I would like this morning to advise the Senate on this historic moment in America's history.

The inspiration for the Chapel of Four Chaplains and its mission of unity without uniformity comes from the courageous acts of four Army chaplains who were serving aboard the USS Dorchester when it was hit by an enemy torpedo and sank in the North Atlantic on February 3, 1943. The four chaplains, LT George Fox, LT Alexander Goode, LT John Washington, LT Clark Poling, a Methodist, one of Jewish faith, one of Catholic faith, and one of the Dutch Reform Church, respectively—quickly spread through the ship to tend to the wounded and dying, to comfort those able to attempt survival in the icy arctic water. They died together, going down with the ship, after giving their lifejackets to other members of the crew. Of the 902 service persons aboard that merchant seaman ship and civilian workers on that ship, 672 died, 230 survived.

President Truman was the Commander in Chief under whom the distinguished guest today and I served in the Korean war, and indeed in my brief service at the conclusion of World War
